To help you in completing this reference please read the following notes. These are intended to explain the task of a Town Pastor and help you assess the suitability of the applicant wishing to apply for this role.

What is a Town Pastor?

A Town Pastor, working as part of a team and in collaboration with the police and local council, seeks to be a positive influence principally on the streets of the town centre and other night-life areas. Town Pastors would typically be out at the weekends in these places, in shifts, from around 8.00pm until the early hours (in Stowmarket, the need has been initially identified as below).

The role of a Town Pastor is not primarily evangelistic but rather about listening, caring and helping young people. It is about showing concern and offering assistance where appropriate, in a non-judgmental and unconditional way.

Town Pastors seek to be a positive presence on the streets available to offer support to vulnerable people, to de-escalate potential trouble and generally assist the police and others.

For reasons of personal safety and to make the most effective use of the Town Pastors, they are monitored by CCTV in the town centre area (where available) and are in radio contact with the CCTV control room.

The police and local council support Town Pastors on the streets of Stowmarket.

Expectations and Commitment

Town Pastors will operate in teams of two. More than one team may be out on the streets at any one time. The desire and ability to work as part of a team is therefore essential.

Town Pastors must be over 18, Christian and part of a local church.

Town Pastor teams are initially out on the streets on Friday nights. The teams patrol from 8.00pm to around 11.00pm. Very occasionally, they will patrol on other nights if requested by the police. On average, each Town Pastor is expected to be out one night a month.
